- third parties like our business partners, your authorised representative/s and wholesalers
- information brokers
- fraud checking agencies
- our dealers, contractors and other representatives that you may deal with
- our websites and how you use them
- various parties listed under Disclosing personal information in our Privacy Policy.

Why we collect and hold personal information

We collect and hold personal information because:

- we may need to use it to operate our business
- we may need to provide it to other parties in connection with our business.

The uses and disclosures we may make of personal information are detailed in our Privacy Policy.

Unavailability of personal information

If we cannot collect the information we need about you, we may not be able to supply the products or service you want.

Disclosing personal information

We may disclose personal information as reasonably required to contractors and suppliers who goods and services that we use to operate our business and provide products and support to you, and to other parties detailed in our Privacy Policy.

It is unlikely that personal information will be disclosed to overseas recipients.

Access and correction

Our privacy policy contains information about how you can access and seek correction of the personal information about you that we hold.

Complaints

Our privacy policy explains how you can complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, and how we will deal with such a complaint.

PRIVACY POLICY

Personal information

This refers to information or an opinion about a living person who is identified or reasonably identifiable, whether or not true and whether or not recorded in material form.

Kinds of personal information we collect and hold

Broadly, we may collect and hold:

- personal details like name, date of birth, gender, occupation and driver licence number
